

The Plume area represents a monitoring parameter and does not denote whether a particular property has (or has not) been affected.